

What story do you want to tell?

Only 1 example provided on purpose!

English

- Video Poem

Science

- Test a hypothesis

Social Studies

- First person narrative of a historical figure

Math

- The woes of being an inequality

LOTE

- Travel Documentary in target language

ESL

- Personal narrative – My Home Country

Home & Careers

- Cooking show

Art

- Portfolio samples w/voice-over

Music

- “Silent movie” w/original music inserted

Physical Education

- 5 minute workout video

Health

- A heart tells the story of living in a smoker

Guidance

- Public Service Announcements (PSAs) on Acceptance, Bullying, etc.

<http://kidsvid.altec.org>

Home | About Us | Theater | Teaching Kids' Vid | Cool News

Video Production is more than a new toy for students. It helps students create work in a new and exciting way. This is a place for serious fun. Kids'Vid is an instructional website to help teachers and students use video production in class to support project-based learning.

Scripting:
What do you want your movie to be about?
Storyboard Tool

Making the Video:
Tips to help you shoot a quality video.

Editing:
Tips for turning your clips into a movie

Showtime!
How to show your video on the Web or CD.

Student Video Challenge
Students (K-12) were invited to participate in ALTEC's DiMO Challenge!

View the Website:
<http://dimo.altec.org>

The DiMO Challenge: Produce a film using digital media and submit it to us online. Your peers and our judges will take a look and decide if your film qualifies for the onsite festival.

This competition was last Jan. 21 in Lawrence, KS. View the winners at the DiMO Screening Room.

Planning (1-3 classes)

- Storyboarding (only if necessary)

Editing (2-4 classes)

- Time for editing

Filming (0-3 classes)

- Who will hold camera?

Sharing (0-2 classes, depending on length)

- In class, closed website, open website

How much time do you have?

1. Planning (1-3 classes)

-Storyboard

2. Filming (0-3 classes)

-Who will film/take pictures?

3. Editing (2-4 classes)

4. Sharing (0-2 classes, depending on length)

-In-class, website (permission to post)

What does the final product look like?

What is your rubric?